SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. _____

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION congratulating the Goshen High School Crimson Percussion Ensemble on winning the Winter Guard International 2005 World Championship.

Whereas, in only the third year since its inception, the Goshen High School Crimson Percussion Ensemble qualified for the Winter Guard International 2005 World Competition by placing second in a regional competition in March;

Whereas, the 16 member Crimson Percussion Ensemble is the first Goshen group to perform in a national percussion competition;

Whereas, the ensemble placed first in the preliminary round to advance to the finals against high schools from Massachusetts, Alabama, and Connecticut;

Whereas, Goshen scored six points more than the second-place group, which is an extraordinary accomplishment; and

Whereas, while most of its competitors play classical music, the Goshen ensemble performs more of a rock show. Fittingly, the Crimson Ensemble performed music from the rock band King Crimson in the competition: Therefore,
